FIRST ANNUAL POULTRY SHOW GIVEN BY THE GLENDALE-TROPICO POULTRY AND PET STOCK ASSOCIATION IS A SUCCESS

Place another star in the publicity flag of Tropico. She is bound to get on the map. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the first annual exhibition of the Glendale-Tropio Poultry and Pet Stock Association was held in the McGinnis building on San Fernando road, and nearly 300 entries were judged by Bob Moore of Los Angeles. Hundreds of enthusiastic poultry lovers viewed the collection and voiced the sentiment of the officers in stating that the show was a success.

The following list of entrants, whose birds and animals scored and who also won special prizes donated by the enterprising merchants of Tropico and Glendale, bespeaks the natural environments of this locality when it comes to the raising of prize poultry.

Barred Plymouth Rocks—Cock: W. P. McPherson, first; Mae W. Hobbs, second. Cockerel: Mae W. Hobbs, first; Mae W. Hobbs, second; Josie E. Wilkins, third. Hen: W. P. McPherson, first; Josie E. Williams, second; Mae W. Hobbs, third. Pullet: Josie E. Wilkins, first; Mae W. Hobbs, second; W. P. McPherson, third. Pen: W. P. McPherson, first; Mae W. Hobbs, second; Mae W. Hobbs, third. Special prizes won by Mae W. Hobbs for best exhibit, merchandice order, $3.00, for best cockerel and merchandise order, $2.00, for best bird shown in American class given by the Glendale Feed and Fuel company.

Mae W. Hobbs entered twenty birds picked out of yards without special attention, and carried away seven ribbons besides the specials. The chickens are from the Fred Espe strain, always winners and the best on earth for utility. One hundred and sixteen Glendale avenue is where she has her yards and a visit is worth while.

Special won by W. P. McPherson, year's subscription to Daily News, for best Barred Rocks, White Plymouth Rocks. Pullet: Oscar Denison, first; Oscar Denison, second. Hen: Oscar Denison, first.

Partridge Plymoutth Rocks—Cockerel: G. Irwin Royce, first; Dr. A. M. Duncan, second. Hen: Dr. A. M. Duncan, first; Dr. A. M. Duncan, second. Pullet: J. E. Vandiver, first; G. Irwin Royce, second.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEET IN REGULAR WEEKLY SESSION

City Hall, City of Tropico, January 19, 1915.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Tropico, met in regular session at the above named place and date, and at 7 o'clock P. M. Present, Trustees Boyce, Conrad, Henry and Webster.

Board called to order by Clerk, who called the attention of the board to the vacancy in the President's chair occasioned by the death of trustee Rich.

On motion of trustee Boyce seconded by Trustee Henry, Trustee Webster was chosen to fill the vacancy.

Trustee Boyce offered the following Resolution:

Resolved: That, sensible of the great loss the people of this city have suffered in the passing of James Rich from the activities of life on earth, and his place at the head of this board as its presiding officer, and deeply conscious of the respect due his memory, a committee consisting of the whole board be and is hereby appointed to prepare and adopt resolutions of condolence and respect suitable to the lamentable event.

That the Board do now adjourn to meet in Committee of the Whole and, upon the rising of the Committee, to stand adjourned to its next regular meeting.

Resolution adopted and Board declared adjourned accordingly.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Tropico thereupon met in Committee of the Whole, and upon motion duly made and seconded, approved and adopted the following Tribute of Respect to the Memory of James Rich, Deceased.

IN MEMORIAM

For the second time in the brief history of this young city has the Messenger of Death reached out its mercy-ministering arm and gathered into his all-enfolding embrace a member of her board of councilmen.

As the shadows of yesterday were lengthening into the gloom of night all that was mortal of was carried to the grave by the Honorable Order of the Knights of Pythias followed by a mourning populace.

"Tired with the struggle,
With the ceaseless needs of life;
Tired of the petty jar,
Of the toil and strife;
Of the doubt and of the fear,
Of the care that haunts us here;
Of the fever and the fretting,
Useless dreaming, vain regretting;
Baffled aim, ungranted prayer,
Chafe and turmoil everywhere---"

he wrapped the drapery of his couch about him and laid himself down to the peaceful sleep that knows no waking until the dawn of the bright day of the life eternal beyond the portals of the tomb.

April 20, 1914, James Rich entered upon the discharge of his duties as a member of this board of Trustees of the City of Toopico. He was promtly chosen its presiding officer. His attendance upon its meetings has been constant. Illness and suffering could not detain him. the struggle he made to bear upand do well his part against the odds of an insidious malady testified to his Spartan fortitude and unfaltering heed to the voice of conscience.

James Rich was fittcd by education and experience to gratify the worthy ambition that possessed his radient soul, ambition to be of service to his fellow man. He was an

HENRY BAILEY BURBANK TAKES OWN LIFE AT HIS HOME

Henry Bailey Burbank, aged 36 years, a native of Maine, a carpenter by trade and a resident for the past three years at 307 Blanche avenue, took his own life some time during Monday night. Mr. Burbank had been in ill health for several months and is the cause assigned for his deed.

Mr. Burbank retired to his room as usual and a short time later his mother, who lives with him, heard a scuffle, and later notified a neighbor, but it was not until morning that an investigation was made. When friends entered the room it was found that the unfortunate man had undressed and went to bed, and then arose and partially dressed again. He had then entered a closet with an opening to the garret, where he fastened a rope to the rafters, and after securely fastening had kicked away a chair and dropped.

Tuesday morning the body was taken down and removed to the undertaking parlors of Scovern, Letton & Frey and the coroner notified.

Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday afternoon. Interment at Forest Lawn cemetery.

TROPICO PARENT-TEACHERS ENTERTAIN ON TUESDAY EVENING

Last Tuesday evening a large and enthusiastic crowd of parents and children gathered at the Cerritos Avenue school as the guests of the Tropico branch of the Parent-Teachers' Association. The hall was decorated with plants and flowers, and after a delightful program refreshments were served to those assembled. The Parent-Teachers' Association is a get-together movement of parents and teachers for the purpose of a clearer working out of the many problems arising in the work of preparing boys and girls for their proper place in the world's progress, and should interest even more than it does.

Under the direction of Mrs. Chadwick, president of the association, the following program was rendered:

Selection by school orchestra.
Song—Girl's Glee club.
Reading—Mrs. Moore.
Piano solo—Rudolph Kohl.
Piano duet—Rudolph and Walter Kohl.

Owing to the absence of Judge Wilbur, who had been unavoidably detained, an address was delivered by Mrs. Plannett, an officer from the probation court; also Mr. Clark from the same office. Both talks were interesting and highly appreciated.

Violin solo—Gene Boring.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Frederickson.

G.U.H.S'S COUNTY FAIR

The citizens of Glendale and vicinity should be interested to known of certain forms of activities in which the students of the Glendale High School engage. Heretofore the financial end of the school activities have been met by the student body duees and the profit from the school play and entertainments. This year a new plan has been adopted and a "County Fair" will be given on Friday and Saturday nights, February 5 and 6.

One reason for this change is to give more students a chance to take part in school activities. Already a great number of students are working out original "stunts" for this fair.

There will be no outside assistance given the students in this undertaking, and all are working to make it a grand success.

Remember the date. Come and bring your friends, also your pocketbook.

HIGHLY RESPECTED CITIZEN, PRESIDENT OF CITY COUNCIL AND MEMBER OF SCHOOL BOARD PASSES ON AND THE CITY MOURNS

After several weeks of intense yet gentle suffering and after months of failing health, at 7:50 o'clock Saturday morning, the spirit of James Rich passed on to that life that knows no awakening.

The passing of this good man leaves Tropico with a vacant chair that can never be filled as James Rich filled it. A friend and councelor to every one, a loving father and devoted husband. No man can say him nay. Fair and impartial justice to all; a love for his fellowman that won for him the esteem and confidence of everyone who knew him.

Nine years ago with his family he came to Tropico from Knoxville, Tenn., and at once entered into the civic and social interests that met the upbuilding and future welfare of this city. At the spring election, last April, James Rich received the largest number of votes of any candidate for trustee as a tribute to his loyalty and was later chosen president of the board by his fellow officers who realized his importance and executive ability. For several years he had been a member of the school board and in this capicity his knowledge of affairs made him a leader. Through his efforts the two new grammar schools were erected last summer and will be enlarged as needed. A lasting manument to his untiring efforts.

Previous to coming to Tropico Mr. Rich had been principal for twenty-eight years of the schools of Knoxsville, Tenn. In that city he studied and practiced law and devoted his Saturdays and leasure time to surveying, being a most competent and accurate civil engineer.

He was also a member of Choto lodge, No. 253, F. and A. M. of Knoxville, Tenn., and served his lodge faithfully for four years as worshipful master. He also affiliated with the Royal Arcanum of Los Angeles. Three years ago he became a member of Visor lodge Knights of Pythias and immediately became known as the "father of the lodge." As a trustee his decisions in matters of importance were the final oourt and no one ever questioned his answers.

James Rich was born in Knoxville, Tenn., July 24, 1852, and was in his sixty-third year. June 14, 1872 he and Miss Mary J. Wells, also a native of Knoxville, were united in marriage and to them were born eight children, all of whom were present at the time of his death. His eldest son, John M. Rich, arrived a month ago to remain with his parents for a visit of several weeks. The other son, Samuel H. Rich, is a member of the Tropico fire department. The daughters are Mrs. Clyde Seal, Mrs. L. C. Hayes, Mrs. Mae Dixon and Miss Irene Rich of Tropico; Mrs. Horace Miller and Mrs. Charles Little of Los Angeles.

Monday afternoon the Knights of Pythias, under the direction of Chancelor Commander A. L. Watson, Vice-Chancelor W. G. Cressey, Prelate E. R. Best and Master of Work Geo. J. Zauxe attended by the lodge robed senate and a battilion under the leadership of Major McClaray from the Silver Star lodge, U. R. K of P, Los Angeles, conducted the ritual services at the K. P. hall and at the cemetery.

Sam Browne, an old Tennessee friend delivered the elogy which was as follows:

"We are assembled here today to do honor to the memory of one who we all knew and loved. We are here as citizens to do honor to the memory of him who held honored official positions of trust in our city, of one who died in the harness of official duty, of one who loved Tropico, his adopted city, of one who at all times was ready and willing to give from his well-stored mind words of advise and consent which resulted in benefits to his beloved city.

"We are here as members of a fraternity to do honor to a brother who firmly believed in the brotherhood of man, who believed that as we came from a common Father we are bound to cherish and protect our fellowman, who, like the man of Galliea, recognized all men as his brothers.

"As one who lived for a time in his home I will say I never knew a more true for devoted husband; a more kind or tender father, giving wise consent and advise, tempered always from a loving heart.

"We are here to express our tenderest sympathy to those bereaved ones in their sorrow. Their grief ought to be tempered by the fact that when their one approached the dark river that his great solace, next to the hope of a blessed immortality was the recollections of a life well spend, of duty done, of the consciencious performance of all work entrusted to him.

"When we speak of his character we want to remember this fact: You cannot dream your self a character. You must hammer and forge yourself one.

"His character was the product of his daily life. Hourly actions and words and thoughts, daily forgiveness, unselfishness, kindness, sympathy, charities, sacrifices for the good of others, struggles against temptation, sickness, illness under trial; Oh, it is those like the blending of colors in a picture or the blending notes of music which constitute the man.

"The fairest fruits earth holds up to its maker is a finished man. Oh, what a beautiful picture a finished man is in the full sense of its deepest meaning. God's proudest product. And he whom we mourn was such a man.

"He was a man of truth, which means he is the best and strongest man. His soul was like a spring of clear water which reflected the light of heaven, and was full of light. His speech and his actions were always just. He won involentary respect. He was a solid landmark admidst the wones of faction and the conflicts of orror.

Headstones and monuments will perpetuate and commemorate. But the act of kindness, the flower of today, the expression of esteem in the present, are the milestones ever remembered. And it is by his acts of kindness that we will keep ever green in our minds the memory of James Rich."

The funeral procession formed with the uniform rank and color-bearer, lodge-robed senate, officers and members of Visor, Miradera and other lodges; the hearse attended by pallbears Sam Browne, C. E. Nicholsen, A. T. Davis, E. F. Bettin, J. J. Burke and H. A. Jennings, with a guard of members of the fire department, honorary passbearers followed. Brother trustees and city officials followed by the family and a long line of sorrowing friends. At the Forest Lawn cemetery the lodge officiated again. During the services all business houses closed. The bells were tolled and flags hung at halg mast in honor of a highly respected citizen.

THE TRADE WITH HOME MERCHANTS EDITORIAL

All over Southern California new towns spring up, and after a grocery store has been established the next thing on the program for the town's development is a newspaper. A newspaper in a town gives its growth an individuality that is necessary. A new town without a newspaper is like a ship without a rudder. It can get nowhere. It is the means whereby a town either grows or dies. This fact is established according to how the readers of the paper support it.

In the grind of newspaperdom many things are to be considered that are vital to its life. In the first place there must be readers and in the next place there must be advertisers. With-With advertising a newspaper cannot exist. When a merchant uses the columns of the newspaper he has to pay out money and he naturally expects returns or he cannot afford to spend the money. By returns he means that the readers of the paper must read his ad and spend their money at his store.

Supposing that every household in Tropico read the city papers each day and then took the car into town and did all their shopping. How long would Tropico merchants be able to last? Not very long. Then, again, with the merchants out of business your property would decrease in value and you would have to go out of business too. There are very few of us here who did not have to pay heavy taxes this year. How many of us stop to consider why? Tropico is an incorporated city with a full set of public officers who draw a living salary. We must maintain schools and protective systems, all costing money. We set a price on our real estate holdings and then set down to wait for someone to come along and push us off and put the money in our pocket, and kick if they don't, after we have gone down to the city and made our daily purchases.

Someone says, "We can buy so much cheaper down town." True, but people can buy property cheaper somewhere else, too. And in reality we are helping some other town and letting our own go hang.

Some talk has gone around relative to new store buildings for new merchants to come here. Goodness me! We don't half support what we have here now. If instead, of going to Los Angeles to do our shopping, we would spend the money with home merchants they would be in a position to give better values than they do now. A careful examination will, however, develop that right now our merchants are giving better values than can be secured elsewhere.

If we would all pull together for the betterment of a future Tropico by doing ALL of our trading at home we would soon find that our property values would increase and purchasers would demand recognition. This would bring new people here. A demand for homes would be in evidence and new merchants would necessarily be called upon, and they would respond. Capital would take notice and the general depression that has been so evident of late would drop and confidence be assured. This again brings this matter down to the newspaper. Instead of looking for bargains in the city papers look in the home paper and see what the home merchant has to offer. He is the one who makes your city and he is the one who should be patronized. The Sentinel has endeavored to give its readers what they want and will continue to do so. What we ask now is that you help the newspaper in your own town by patronizing the home merchants. Read the ads. They always give you values and unless you patronize them you stop the advertising. That stops the paper and the merchant stops and the town stops. What will it be?

DEATH OF JAMES RICH

Miss Elsie Anderson, Homer Smith and Dr. P. V. Lucas, with Miss Helene Morgan at the piano, rendered "Crossing the Bar," and Harry Marple sang a solo, "Lead, Kindly Light," and at the grave he led in singing "Nearer My God to Thee."

In honor of James Rich the schools were closed and at the cemetery entrance the children formed in line while the cortege passed, and at the grave strew the coffin with flowers, a high tribute to one whose life had been devoted to a task of moulding the worldintellects of children; his gift to the world.

The Scovern-Letton-Frey Co. were the undertakers in charge.

As Tropico takes up the reins again, after paying respects to a man of men, she extends to the sorrowing family a hand of fellowship to cheer them on through the battle of life, made so much harder by the loss of a loved one. For in in the midst of life we are in death.

Mrs. Chauncey Lake will spend the week-end with her sister at Santa Ana.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will serve a "jitney" dinner in the Sunday school parlors of the church February 5. This affair promises to be quite a novelty.

Gerrit Heeringa, brother of Gilbert Heeringa, the highwayman who shot Marshal Smith and who later was killed in his room in Los Angeles by the police, claimed the body and gave him a Christian burial in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

The statements made in Los Angeles papers and credited as coming from him were erroneous

B. E. Murdock and Arthur Grey of Los Angeles were over-Sunday visitors at the home of E. H. Weston. Both gentlemen are ardent archery enthusiasts and enjoyed the day on the regulation target grounds of Mr. Weston.

Oliver C. Logan, Sr., died at his home in Casa Verdugo last Thursday afternoon after an illness of but a few hours. Mr. Logan was an old settler in this section, having lived here for over sixteen years. His two sons, O. C. Logan of Casa Verdugo, and John A. Logan of Tropico, together with a host of friends, mourn his passing.

Funeral services were held at the parlors of the Pulliam Undertaking company Saturday.

At the meeting of the Tropico Library Association, held at the home of Dwight Griswold last week, the following directors for the ensuing year were chosen: Dwight Griswold, Mesdames W. H. Bullis, Chas. A. Barker, Frank E. Peters, Hal H. Davenport, Dwight Griswold, A. U. Collins, E. J. Morgan and J. H. Webster.

Mrs. Charles Barker entertained the Bridge Luncheon club at her home on Glendale avenue last week. The home was beautifully decorated with lilies and ferns and a dainty luncheon served. Mrs. Clarence Good was the winner of the prizes, two Nippon cups and saucers.

Miss Milicent Virdin, daughter of Edwin Virdin of the Tropico Pharmacy, and an accomplished pianoist assisted by Ferdinand Rigali, violinist, will give a recital program for the Thursday Afternoon club Thursday afternoon at the K. P. hall. Miss Virdin is only a recent arrival in Tropico but already her fame is abroad and the affair Thursday afternoon will prove a highly enjoyable time. She will also give a talk on the development of the sonata from the earliest times to the present day and illustrate her talk with a Scarlatti sonata and the Beethoven Appassionata.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnston and son Glenn, of Minneapolis, Minn., who were guests at the home of C. Benner, will visit relatives in Los Angeles before going to the Frisco fair. Mr. Johnston and family have traveled for a year and like Tropico better than any place they have visited for residing. They do not like Los Angeles; say the streets are too narrow, houses too close. They are pleased with property they were looking at on San Fernando road; also witth the ocean and bathing at the seashore.

W. A. Calhoun, animal keeper at Griffith park, has undertaken the raising of a young lion. One of the lions in the zoo gave birth to a single cub last week and for some reason refused to mother it. To get rid of her babe she attempted to kill it. Then did Calhoun take a hand, and now the babe is gaining strength on a bottle. Visitors from Tropico are invited to see his protege. Mr. Calhoun lives in the cottage at the top of the hill.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO GENERAL PUBLIC

The Epworth League will give a social at the social hall, 210 Palmer avenue, Friday night, January 22. The public is invited.

The Tropico Men's Brotherhood will hold its monthly meeting and feed at the social hall Tuesday, January 26, 7:30 p.m. Address by Mr. C. A. DeCoo of Los Angeles. Men sixteen years old and over invited.

The chorus rehearsal will be held at the First M. E. church each Thursday evening. The musicians in and about Tropico are wanted to help build up a first-class chorus and orchestra.

The Sunday school of the First M. E. church is well equipped with first-class literature and has out-grown the old quarters so that it occupies both the social hall and the church.

A men's class and a class for mothers with babies in arms are soon to be organized. We have a first-class primary department.

The Junior League at 2:30 p.m. and the Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. have interesting meetings.

Religious folks will enjoy the prayer meeting and home coming Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. and the class meeting Sunday 12 m. If not religious, why not?

Dr. Smith will preach Sunday, 11 a. m. from "The Spirit's Test ofReligious Fads," and 7:30 p. m. from "Is the Young Man and His Sister Safe?" Go to church in Tropico.

MEN'S BROTHERHOOD OF TROPICO CITY

The Men's Brotherhood of Tropico will meet at the social hall, 210 W. Palmer avenue, Tuesday, January 26, 1915, 7:30 p. m. The fifty charter members will receive notices as far as possible through the mails. Each man is requested to bring another man at least. Besides this a general invitation is extended to all men in this vicinity of good moral character, sixteen years old or over. The object is to increase the membership to 100 soon.

At this meeting there will be an address by Mr. C. A. DeCoo of Los Angeles, a business man and the retiring president of the Brotherhood of the First M. E. church There will also be short talks by the president and each of the six vice-presidents, setting forth the aim of each department. A musical program—vocal and orchestra music, the adoption of the constitution and a feed. Plans for a series of lectures, an athletic field and other matters of interest will be considered. Address communications to the secretary, Attorney Hugh P. Graves, Burke building, Tropico, Cal.

HAROLD BENNER ENTERTAINS BOY SCOUTS

On Friday evening, January 15, Harold F. Benner entertained the Boy Scouts at his home on Victor Court street.

A business meeting was called to order by Patrol Leader Ralph Bellinger. Two boys who had made application for membership were sworn in. After the business meeting had adjourned games, music, songs, speeches and conundrums were enjoyed by the boys until midnight.

The rooms were decorated with greenery and were arranged to represent the woods, with a tent and boy's camping outfit in one end.

Prof. J. Goodsell gave a very interesting and instructive talk on astro physics. During the evening refreshments were served. Prizes were given to the boys winning the most points in games and puzzles. The first prize was the scouts official handbook, won by Leslie Kephler; second prize was won by Ralp Bellinger, third prize by Robert Carmack. Those present were Russel Harrison, Harry Gorman, Leslie Kephler, Edward Kuch, Fred Schreiner, Virgil Monnet, Francis Bacon, Jamey Hamilton, Ralph Bellinger and Scout Master J. Goodsell.

Mrs. Frank Ashton and Miss Harriet J. Myers entertained delightfully Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Ashton, 120 West Park avenue. The hostesses were assisted by Miss ida D. Myers and Mrs. John Hobbs. The guests included the Senior and Junior Philathea classes of the Presbyterian church, Rev. and Mrs. Galt and Mr. Frank Ashton. Various guessing games occupied the time most pleasantly and in the contest for the best wish or motto for the classes, Miss Tersa Snell won the prize, a gold Philathea pin. Delicious refreshments were served, and the guests, loth to leave, lingered late and expressed their appreciation of the efforts of the two earnest, devoted Philathea teachers.

The Philathea girls of the Tropico Presbyterian Church will conduct a "Bakery Sale" at the Tropico Mercantile Co's. store, Saturday, January 23.

THE COUNTY FAIR

By Peter Radford
Lecturer National Farmers' Union

The farmer gets more out of the fair than anyone else. The fair to a city man is an entertainment; to a farmer it is education. Let us take a stroll through the fair grounds and linger a moment at a few of the points of greatest interest. We will first visit the mechanical department and hold communion with the world's greatest thinkers.

You are now attending a congress of the mental giants in mechanical science of all ages. They are addressing you in tongues of iron and steel and in language mute and powerful tell an eloquent story of the world's progress. The inventive geniuses are the most valuable farm hands we have and they perform an enduring service to mankind. We can all help others for a brief period while we live, but it takes a master mind to tower into the realm of science and light a torch of progress that will illuminate the pathway of civilization for future generations. The men who gave us the sickle, the binder, the cotton gin and hundreds of other valuable inventions work in every field on earth and will continue their labors as long as time Their bright intellects have conquered death and they will live and serve mankind on and on forever, without money and without price. They have shown us how grand and noble it is to work for others; they have also taught us lessons in economy and efficiency, how to make one hour do the work of two or more; have lengthened our lives, multiplied our opportunities and taken toil off the back of humanity.

They are the most practical men the world ever produced. Their inventions have stood the acid test of utility and efficiency. Like all useful men, they do not seek publicity, yet millions of machines sing their praises from every harvest field on earth and as many plows turn the soil in mute applause of their marvelous achievements.

FARMER RADFORD ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE

The home is the greatest contribution of women to the world, and the hearthstone is her throne. Our social structure is built around her, and social righteousness is in her charge. Her beautiful life lights the skies of hope and her refinement is the charm of twentieth century civilization. Her graces and her power are the cumulative products of generations of queenly conquest, and her crown of exalted womanhood is jeweled with the wisdom of saintly mothers. She has been a great factor in the glory of our country, and her noble achievements should not be marred or her hallowed influence blighted by the coarser duties of citizenship. American chivalry should never permit her to bear the burdens of defending and maintaining government, but should preserve her unsullied from the allied influences of politics, and protect her from the weighty responsibilities of the sordid affairs of life that will crush her ideals and lower her standards. The motherhood of the farm is our inspiration, she is the guardian of our domestic welfare and a guide to a higher life, but directing the affairs of government is not within woman's sphere, and political gossip would cause her to neglect the home, forget to mend our clothes and burn the biscuits.

RURAL SOCIAL CENTERS

We need social centers where our young people can be entertained, amused and instructed under the direction of cultured, clean and competent leadership, where aesthetic surroundings stir the love for the beautiful, where art charges the atmosphere with inspiration and power, and innocent amusements instruct and brighten their lives.

To hold our young people on the farm we must make farm life more attractive as well as the business of farming more remunerative. The school house should be the social unit, properly equipped for nourishing and ng character, so that the lives of people can properly function d it and become supplied with ecessary elements of human and activity.

ucation is a developing of the , not a stuffing of the memory. st what you read.

men have visions, young men dreams. Successful farmers deep while sluggards sleep.

he growing of legumes will retard soil depletion and greatly add to its power to produce.

Partridge Rocks are of a golden line. Attractive in the yard and never show dirt. No better are found for table use.

R. H. Whitten deserves a comment on his excellent showing of White Orpingtons. Competent judgees say that his 18 entries were the best exhibit that has been shown in Southern California for some time.

The Glendale Pigeon Lofts gave one an impression of what they have at their lofts.

Mrs. Walter M. Ross, witht her Carmeaux pigeons, won many comments as well as prizes.

The Mae Hobbs exhibit of Plymouth Rocks were picked from the yards without any preparations, but they won the highest honors at the show.

Mrs. L. E. Berkey, a Tropico exhibitor of White Wyandottes, always carries away all the firsts at every show.

Charles E. Patterson's entry, light and speckled Sussex, was one of the finest displays in the unusual class.

Irving H. Oliver's Silver Campines looked as though they had just left the bath, barber and manicure shop, and attracted unlimited attention.

ANOTHER VARIATION

By William C. Anderson

I've wandered to the village, Tom,
there's wild beasts chained to trees;
The old schoolhouse is all shot up; I tremble at the knees.
The bandits rob the banks at night,
and office safes they blow.
The trains are stopped and plundered,
Tom, same as twenty years ago.

The place is getting awful, Tom; it took me by surprise, There's nothing lawful anywhere, and crime would blind your eyes.
For shots ring out, and men are killed;
they all are after dough.
Tropico has awakened, Tom, since twenty years ago.

There's hold-ups every night, Tom,
and tears come to my eyes
To see sweethearts kidnapped, lovers shot, and other broken ties.
For crime is running rampant, and I'll be glad to go.
'Tis not the same old village, Tom,
'twas twenty years ago.

The Los Angeles river runs as still;
the willows on its side
Are no larger than they were, Tom;
the stream is just as wide.
But the town is not so peaceful, I'll tell you why it's so:
The place is filled with actors for a

Card of Thanks

Realizing how impossible it would be to personally see and thahk for their kindness and sympathy everyone who so ably and willingly came to our support in the hours of our bereavement when we lost our dear husband and father, we take this means of extending our heartfelt thanks.

Words could not express our gratitude to the Knights of Pythias Order who conducted the funeral services.

To the City Trustees and Officials we will be ever grateful.

Scovern, Lefton, Frey were more than solicitous for our needs We thank them.

To Dr. Conrad we are especially indebted.
